

Alex Sparrow and the Really Big Stink

After Reading Exercise: Writing to the Author

Now that you've finished reading 'Alex Sparrow and the Really Big Stink', why not write to the author?

Jennifer would love to hear your thoughts on her story: the things you enjoyed about it; the things you didn't like so much and any ideas you have about what you'd like to see Alex, Jess and Bob doing in the future.

You could also ask her any questions you have about the story or characters, or how she became an author.

You could write an email or a letter. You could send drawings of the characters or anything else you think she might be interested in.

She will do her very best to reply to all emails and letters (make sure you include your postal address, with your parent's or carer's permission). Or you could write some letters as a class and ask your teacher to send them on.

Emails should be sent to:

jenniferkillick@hotmail.co.uk

Letters should be addressed to:

Jennifer Killick

171 Harefield Road

Uxbridge

UB8 1PN

She can't wait to hear from you!
