

Alex Sparrow and the Really Big Stink

Word Games With Bob

Anagrams are words or phrases that are formed by rearranging the letters of another word or phrase. For example, if you rearrange the letters of the word 'GARDEN', you can make the word 'DANGER'.

Try to unravel the anagrams below. There are clues to help you.

1. LOOPED

Answer:

Clue: This is a type of dog

2. FRINGE

Answer:

Clue: You have ten of them

3. OPTION

Answer:

Clue: You might make one of these with Professor Snape

4. HUSTLING

Answer:

Clue: This might peep through your curtains in the morning

5. FILTER

Answer:

Clue: A pudding with jelly, fruit and cream

6. TOM MARVOLO RIDDLE

Answer:

Clue: One for Harry Potter fans!

Can you make any anagrams yourself? Try using simple words, or even your name!